SHORTHORN

History

The Shorthorn Breed of cattle originated on the northeastern coast of England in the counties of North Cumberland, Durham, York and Lincoln. The first real development of the breed occurred in the valley of the Tees River about 1600. The large-framed cattle that inhabited this fertile valley became known as the Teeswater cattle.

The breed later spread to Scotland and then to America in 1783. When first brought to Virginia, the breed had attained the name Durham. It was the first improved breed to be imported here and the qualities the animals possessed put them in great demand, rapidly spreading their influence across America.

Shorthorns were popular with America's early settlers. They valued this breed for meat and milk and found Shorthorns a willing power for the wagon and plow as well. The breed followed, sometimes pulling pioneer wagons across the Great Plains and into the far west.

In 1834, Felix Renick of Chillicothe made the first major importation of Shorthorns to Ohio. On October 29, 1836, he held the first Shorthorn auction in Ohio. The cattle sold for huge amounts ranging from $400 to $2,225. A monument was erected to mark this historical milestone.

The Shorthorn breed is one of the oldest American breed organizations in existence today. Shorthorns and Polled Shorthorns are registered in the same Herd Book. Over 45 other breeds of cattle show traces of Shorthorn / Polled Shorthorn in their parentage, including Belgian Blues, Santa Gertrudis, Angus, Red Angus, Charolais, Gelbvieh, Beefmaster, Maine-Anjou and Milking Shorthorns.

The breed has been a part of many "firsts". The first registry for any breed of beef cattle was Coates Herd Book in 1822. The American Shorthorn Herd Book was the first of any breed to be published in the U.S. and was started in 1846. The first breed organization in America was the American Shorthorn Association which was founded in 1872. The first major breed to be developed in the U.S. was Polled Shorthorns, originating in Minnesota in 1881.

Shorthorns are the world's most numerous beef breed, but their numbers in North America do not reflect their world popularity. They are considered to be the most docile, easily-handled beef animals in the world.

Shorthorns have long been known for their maternal traits, milking ability and calving ease. Now the breed is excelling in growth and carcass traits, possessing the ability to produce a choice carcass while maintaining leanness.

Ohio Shorthorn Breeders' Association Recognition

Ohio Beef Expo Sale dedicated to Keith Moore

During the 2021 Ohio Beef Expo, a dedication ceremony took place to honor the efforts of the late Keith Moore and to rename the Shorthorn Sale as the Ohio Beef Expo Keith Moore Memorial Shorthorn Sale.

Moore had been around Shorthorn Cattle since he started in 4-H. He served the breed in many positions including secretary and fieldman of the OSBA, various positions with the ASA, and he was the Shorthorn representative for the Ohio Beef Expo from 1988-2019.

Keith and his family owned and operated Mooreland Farms in Russellville. Keith was a true asset to the Ohio Beef Expo, Ohio Shorthorn Breeders Association, Shorthorn breed and will be tremendously missed.

Tom has met that goal and works everyday to continue to improve and build not only his herd but the Shorthorn Breed as well.

2020 Winner: Ron Cronley

RC Show Cattle recognized by ASA as Builder of the Breed

The American Shorthorn Association Awards hosted their Annual Awards Banquet on Saturday, October 23, 2021 at the Hilton Kansas City Airport in Kansas City, Mo.

RC Show Cattle of Eaton, Ohio was designated as a 2020 Builder of the Breed. The prestigious "Builder of the Breed" recognizes Shorthorn breeders who have shown true dedication for a lengthy period and contributed to the stewardship of the Shorthorn Breed. This award recognizes their efforts in breeding and promoting Shorthorn cattle, which have added to genetic improvement of the breed.

Individuals are recognized who have continuously been supporters and promoters for both the Shorthorn breed and the beef cattle industry. Builder of the Breed award winners are recognized for making a lasting impact on our breed.

RC Show Cattle demonstrates these qualifications through their involvement in the breed over many years. Ron was raised with Shorthorn cattle as his grandparents had them in the 1890's & his parents into the 1980's. Christy was raised on a farrow-to-finish hog operation and started showing club calf and Angus her 3rd year in 4-H. RC Show Cattle first bred Maine-Anjou & club calf genetics, but in 1997 purchased CF Nasdaq with Mark Nolan and family. After this purchase they started concentrating more on Shorthorn genetics. Today they run a 50-head cow herd of Shorthorn & Angus based cows. They also continue to have the day-to-day job of Ron's fence construction business that was started in 1984.

Ron continues to trim feet on show cattle and is a past Ohio Shorthorn Association director. Christy is an active 4-H advisor and has been for the last 25 years as well as a current Ohio Shorthorn association director. They annually exhibit at the NAILE & National Western along with the Ohio Shorthorn preview and many local and BEST sanctioned shows. They market their cattle through their annual Early Bird Sale held Labor Day weekend along with 3-4 online sales throughout the year. Their love for cattle has always agreed on one thing "breed & present sound, functional cattle in an eye appealing package."

The American Shorthorn Association and Ohio Shorthorn Breeders Association congratulate RC Show Cattle of this special honor as being selected as a 2020 Builder of the Breed.

Dr. Turner's commitment to education is proven through his instrumental involvement of developing an endowment program, securing the longevity of the livestock judging program.
